

Hobbyist CNC Machines for Wood, Plastic, and Soft Materials

$300–$600 — Entry Hobbyist CNC (Non- Metals)

Best for beginners. Handles wood, MDF, plastics, leather, foam, and PCB milling. Compact, affordable, and widely supported.

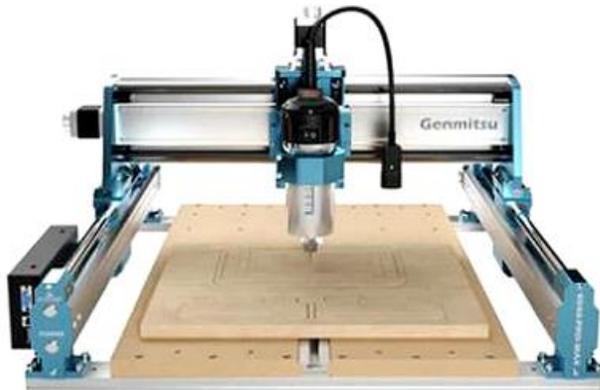

Genmitsu 3018- PRO CNC

<https://www.sainsmart.com/collections/genmitsu-cnc>

$600–$1,200 — Mid- Range Hobbyist CNC (Non- Metals)

More rigid frames, larger work areas, and better accuracy. Ideal for hardwoods, thicker plastics, and repeatable hobby projects.

Genmitsu 4040- PRO CNC

<https://www.sainsmart.com/collections/genmitsu-cnc>

$1,200–$2,000 — Top- Tier Hobbyist / Light Production CNC

Large desktop machines with stronger frames and better motion components. Suitable for serious hobbyists and light production runs in wood and plastics.

Shapeoko- class Desktop CNC

<https://carbide3d.com/shapeoko/>